THE 2014 Season is off and running

Many of us talked about this year may well be one of those years we battle the elements. For the past four seasons, I can only recall one rainout. It started out that way but the hearty golfers of RIGC stuck around and we kicked it off with twelve MEN who wanted to tee it up.

This also kicked off the beginning of the quest for “THE JUG” that Wayne Curto holds at his home for being last year’s winner. To refresh your memories, it is listed after the results of this round.

Shot of the day by Rod Cooper---second shot on #3 pars 5 hit the rocks in front of the green—all players swore that it went into the water. Dropped a ball and hit another....HOWEVER, when we got to the green, there was my ball just 10 feet away waiting for the eagle putt which was missed.

The results of play:
