#19 Week of September 28 2014

Another beautiful fall was upon us on Wednesday. Most of us gathered out at Greystone for a prelude to our ultimate Finale, coming in Oct 8. This week we were back to our regular game of low net-greenies-skins and of course, our wonderful three putt donation to the treasury funds.

We had a good turnout of players this week. It looks like most of the players are gearing up to make a charge at that “Jug.” Extra points are awarded for these final two events. This week, the tournament chair elected to go easy on everyone including himself and put the tee boxes up to the whites. This in his thoughts would give everyone a chance for a GOOD round with the weather a bit south for fall. We all know at this time of year, the ball flies a bit shorter than the dead of summer.

There were some terrific shots heard around the course but none of them ranked as high as the two shots that Bill Huney and Bill Siegert put on the par three 12th at 162 yds. Huney put his shot within two feet of the cup and Siegert, well if the wind would have blown a bit, the ball would have rolled in for an ace. The course was playing just over 6000 yards and the wind was soft, the weather warm, and the scorecards showed many birdies. In my group alone, there were a number.

The results of this week are:

LOW NET OF THE DAY $22.00 (11 EACH)

Myron Lederman 65

Mike Whitty 65

Both these players are going on the “Watch list” of HHC Miller, I am sure. However, with one event left, who cares.

Skins: 9 skins each $15.00

Whitty (2) 6-17

Palazzolo (2) 11-18

Lederman (2) 5-16

Whitmore (1) 4

Huney (1) 9

Filak (1) 10

Closes to the pin $15.00 each

#2 Curto

#12 Siegert

#6/16 Treasury

The treasury received $98.00 in our revenue enhancement donations. RIGC thanks all the contributors.

For all those following the Jug points:

Lederman and Whitty 100 points each

Schiff 75 points

Curto and Siegert 50 points each

All other players 25 points
